

*Adult Groups at Asbury First

The Appetizer Group. Hair changing color or thinning? Kids growing too quickly, or not quickly enough? Wish you had a Porsche instead of a Plymouth? Then we have something in common. Join us the first Sunday evening of each month. We share appetizers and fellowship. More info: Contact Us

College Student Ministry. Coming soon to a computer or mailbox near you! Designed to keep college-age students, both in Rochester and beyond, in touch with AFUMC. Occasional care packages will be sent; an e-mail connection will be available. For more information, to volunteer, or donate, contact our youth minister, Phil Phaneuf .

Covenant Discipleship Groups. These are small groups which meet weekly for an hour that's convenient to group members. Members share in writing and keeping a faith covenant, and find mutual support a tremendous asset to their Christian walk. For more info, contact Rev. Susan Shafer

Down at the End of the Hall. People are finding out that the Resource Library down at the end of the hall on the first floor of the Education Wing offers not only peace and quiet while waiting for children or between services, but also reading and discussion inspired by our librarian.

Group of Young Adults. For adults in their 20's and 30's looking for an opportunity to share, grow, and be challenged in their faith journeys, and be in fellowship together. Includes opportunities for fun social activities, volunteer work, and experiences to expand your horizons.

Jubilee Circle. If you are a woman in your 40's to 50's wanting to live with faith and intention, and have a desire to deepen your relationship with God, join us on occasional Saturdays for stimulating programs and shared experiences.

Men's Fellowship Group. The Men's Fellowship Group meets every Wednesday morning at 6:00 a.m. in the Red Room of 1010. Each week they share devotions, joys, concerns, hymns, prayers, conversation, and often discussion about a book of interest. An optional breakfast follows at a nearby restaurant. For more information, contact Glenn Peck (461-1592) or Dave Rice (723-4618).

The Women on Wednesday Group (a.k.a. WOW) meets this fall at 1010 East Ave. Bag lunch optional. Come as you can, eager to learn, discuss, and share your thoughts around a book selected by the group. We laugh, we groan, we share, we learn, it's fun!. More info: Rev. Susan Shafer
